Cloud Nine

Plush bamboo velour, and oh so soft on the hair; a touch of luxury creates your personal oasis from home. Designed for morning moments and self-care rituals, to keep things in place (and off your face). Two shades inspired by our favorite puffs of cotton in the sky. Feet on the ground, head in the clouds: meet Cloud Nine.

“Cloud Nine is our first foray into objects that enrich your rituals, and are with you in those sacred times along your wellness journey. For me, this is my bathroom – the place I wind down each night, and rev up in the morning. In my Coveteur days, I had the privilege of getting first hand insight into the curated collection of items people cherish on their night table, vanity, coffee table etc; Those edited heirlooms that are with them in their most intimate moments.” — Erin Kleinberg
