CLEAN FORMULAS
POWERED BY NATURE + SCIENCE

JOAQUINA BOTÁNICA

Welcome to Joaquina Botánica, a line of powerfully clean and refreshingly vibrant skincare. Our formulas are powered by clinically proven actives and luscious botanicals indigeneous to Latin America, the world's most biodiverse region. We have partnered with the leading chemists in clean beauty innovation to curate the region's most potent superfruits and distill them into results-driven skincare. Each of our proprietary formulas is designed to achieve healthy, vibrant, glowing skin through high levels of nutrient-dense, proven ingredients, and zero empty fillers. We never compromise in achieving results while proudly adhering to the strictest standards for clean beauty.

We believe that beauty is as simple as nourished, hydrated, well looked-after skin, and confidence in embracing what makes each of us unique. We believe that skincare rituals should be moments of pleasure, not a chore, and hope to share the warmth of the tropics with every bottle.

FROM OUR FOUNDER

As a native New Yorker with Colombian roots, I have always traveled between both worlds. Inspired by my family heritage of vibrant, entrepreneurial women, I named Joaquina after my great-great grandmother, who founded one of the first apothecaries in Cali, Colombia in 1875.

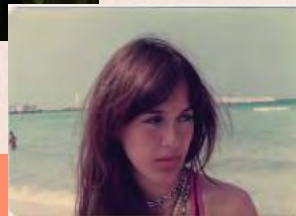

Married to a doctor, Joaquina convinced him to turn his skill making innovative remedies into a business. When he unexpectedly passed, she ran the apothecary on her own until her son was old enough to take over – breaking her generation’s expectations of women, while committing to her vision of a modernized business. It ultimately grew into one of the most trusted personal care brands in the country.

I started my own career working in fashion at Vogue and W Magazines. A few years later, I felt pulled to support Colombia’s thriving fashion industry. I dedicated myself to working with a series of incredibly talented Latin American designers, and helped propel them onto the global stage. I was proud to celebrate my roots with the world, and soon felt drawn to do the same in beauty.

My own beauty philosophy is a reflection of the Colombian women in my life - passionate, strong, spirited women who embrace beauty rituals as a pleasure, not a chore, and know how to celebrate their unique, natural beauty at every stage of life. Nature itself is central to the beauty practices women have passed down through generations. After all, in Colombia, larger-than-life plants and flowers and luscious, vibrant fruits are part of everyday life.

I started to wonder how I could deepen and share these practices, and immersed myself in extensive research with women, beauty practitioners, chemists, and cultivators. Following Joaquina’s footsteps, I wanted to create something innovative, which for my generation, is returning to the power of our biodiversity. What I discovered were unusual, beautiful botanicals that I could transform into original, high-performance skincare. I was pregnant with my daughter throughout this journey, so creating a strictly clean line was always central. Each resulting Joaquina Botánica formula encapsulates the power of Latin America’s botanical beauty through results-driven skincare. I hope you enjoy our products as much as I enjoyed creating them for you.

Con Amor,
Giovanna Campagna

Orquídea + Vitamin C HYDRATING GLOW OIL

This luscious, lightweight blend of tropical ingredients is advanced by science to leave skin hydrated, youthful, and luminous. Orchid extract helps to maintain firmness and elasticity, while fighting cell oxidation. Our proprietary complex of nutrient-dense superfruits, featuring Cacay, Camu Camu, and Sacha Inchi, delivers high levels of nourishing Omegas and Vitamins A & E, while a boost of oil-soluble Vitamin C powerfully penetrates the skin to brighten and protect. Retinol-alternative Bakuchiol encourages skin regeneration. Apply this truly holistic treatment oil as your daily go-to for healthy, glowing skin. Suitable for all skin types.

WHY IT WORKS

12 SUPERCHARGED BOTANICALS

With powerful levels of nutritious ingredients, our proprietary blend of botanicals works synergistically to achieve nourished, glowing, youthful skin.

ORCHID

A unique anti-aging ingredient diminishes the appearance of fine lines & wrinkles, while inhibiting aging caused by cell oxidation. Colombia's national flower.

VITAMIN C

5 botanical sources of skin-brightening Vitamin C are boosted by oil-soluble Tetrahexyldecyl Ascorbate, which has been shown to penetrate the skin 50x better than ascorbic acid.

BAKUCHIOL

This natural retinol alternative encourages cell turnover and collagen production, without causing irritation.

VITAMINS A & E

Powerhouse botanicals, like Cacay, Sacha Inchi, and Maracuja deliver high levels of anti-aging Vitamin A and E to hydrate, repair, and rejuvenate the skin.

OMEGA FATTY ACIDS

Omegas 3, 6, and 9 hydrate, calm, strengthen, and deliver antioxidant protection.

Hydrating Glow Oil
KEY ACTIVE BOTANICALS

ORCHID

Extract rich in antioxidants and glycoproteins that targets the signs of aging, while protecting against cell oxidation.

CACAY

Amazonian superfruit that hydrates, repairs, and has been clinically proven to powerfully target signs of aging. Packed with Vitamins A, E, and Linoleic Acid.

CAMU CAMU

Known for powerfully high levels of Vitamin C, this superfruit provides antioxidant protection while brightening the skin and targeting hyperpigmentation.

SACHA INCHI

Amazonian seed rich in Omegas and Vitamin E that hydrates, plumps, and protects the skin. Has been harvested for over 3,000 years in Latin America.

We proudly adhere to the highest industry standards.

- Credo Compliant ✓
- Follain Compliant ✓
- Clean at Sephora ✓

Our Process

Our process begins by curating the most potent, nourishing botanicals native to Latin America, the world's most biodiverse region. We are inspired by both traditional uses of natural ingredients that have been passed down through generations, and by the most current scientific research surrounding previously untapped botanicals.

The benefits of each natural ingredient are amplified in our formulations when combined with clinical actives at the cusp of clean beauty innovation. We are committed to using high levels of our most nutritious ingredients, while leaving out unnecessary empty fillers.

We primarily source key ingredients from suppliers in Latin America. It is our mission to support the region's growing industry of sustainable cosmetic ingredient cultivation, with the goal of eventually sourcing and manufacturing the majority of our products locally.

Powerfully Clean

We believe that beauty and health are inseparable. We will never compromise in creating safe, non-toxic formulas that are simultaneously results-driven.

We define Clean in accordance with the organizations and retailers pioneering the strictest standards for the term. We have proudly banned over 2,700 ingredients from our products, and will continuously evolve our practices to adhere to the most stringent guidelines for clean beauty.

You will never find phthalates, parabens, silicones, synthetic fragrances, and much more in our products. For our full list of "Never Ingredients," or to learn more about the luscious ingredients we do include, write to us at clean@joaquinabotanica.com.

Sustainability

Sustainability is integrated into our brand DNA. We have mindfully packaged our launch products in recyclable glass and cartons printed with environmentally-friendly vegetable-based ink. Our shipping boxes are 100% recyclable, sealed with water-activated tape derived from recycled materials, and scaled to be as minimal as possible.

Our commitment to the strictest standards for clean formulations mean that we never include harmful toxins that cause damage when released into the environment. We work with suppliers who are sustainably harvesting ingredients in a manner that supports both their communities and their environment.

As we grow, we commit to continuously evolving our methods to adhere to the current best-practices for a sustainable brand.

The Beauty of Giving Back

With each bottle sold, we are proud to pledge a portion of our profits to supporting Latin American communities in need through non-profit Glasswing International. Founded by Obama Foundation Fellow, Celina de Sola, Glasswing is a leader for impact in the region.

Through its extensive programs in 10 Latin American countries, and with migrant families in the United States, Glasswing supports children and young adults through education, mental, and emotional health programs.

After integrating the Crema Essential into my routine every day for two weeks, I can see why Campagna was so excited to share these Colombian ingredients with the world. As promised, it absorbs instantly into my skin, and leaves behind exactly the sort of “sweaty glow” that makes me feel like my complexion has been transported to a tropical island. It has a faint papaya scent that leaves me dreaming of breakfast on the beach, and keeps my skin plump and dewy all day.

The Best Face Oils to Use Now

From tried-and-true botanical elixirs to lab-derived formulas, there's a blend for everyone, whether it's infused with rose hip, black currant or fermented buri.

Breathing in certain aromas, we know, can provide benefits of its own. A few drops of Heritage Store's Rose Oil, made with Bulgarian damask roses, will transport you to one sort of garden, and Joaquina Botánica's Orquídea + Vitamin C Hydrating Glow Oil — made with orchid and the superfruits camu camu, maracuja, papaya and sacha inchi, which is sourced from Peru, where it is sustainably wildcrafted by local farmers in Amazonian communities — to another. Here, too, you'll find bakuchiol, which comes from the babchi plant, long used in traditional Eastern medicine, and, as a natural retinol alternative, is prized for keeping skin looking fresh.

Adhering to the strictest standards for clean beauty, Joaquina Botánica, which will launch in January by industry veteran, Giovanna Campagna, uses formulas powered by botanicals indigenous to Latin America. Partnering with leading chemists in clean beauty innovation, the brand has curated the region's most potent superfruits and distilled them into results-driven skincare. "As the brand is inspired by my Colombian heritage, a core pillar is curating the most potent and compelling ingredients native to the Latin America," says Campagna. "Latin America is the world's most biodiverse region, so it is uniquely well-positioned as an endless source for powerful and innovative ingredients." The brand started with superfruits like camu camu and maracuja, among other vibrant and unusual botanicals for its first product launching soon. Sign up for launch updates here.
